Mon, Jul 06, 2009 -- Purpose of the Site

Posted by: Charles Evans

This Blackboard site is part of our examination of student success in HIS 101 courses per our participation in the Achieving the Dream project. The intent is to give all adjuncts a central location to access resources, discuss teaching issues and collaborate to improve student outcomes in our history survey courses. We can add anything to this site that you will find useful as an instructor at the college.
