

Russia of the Russians

The slow way wanders to the distant sky,
The pale sun sinks to his grey dreams of rest ;
The shadows fall, and faint the hope that I
May win the goal beyond the fading west.

But from the greyness light rose, and sweet sound
Called me to linger on the endless plain ;
Summoned swift powers from unseen heights around,
Breathed forth a home, made lone ways live again.

Sighs mount to song, light in the shadow lies,
And the wild plain is mated with the skies.
